Pennsylvania Hunters and Interested Parties:

Updated Hunting Policy

Thank you for your interest in hunting on Simmons Farm property. The Simmons Family welcomes Pennsylvania sportsmen and sportswomen to our farm at designated times. To allow for a safe and enjoyable experience for our employees, customers and hunters, please adhere to the following rules:

1. Complete, sign and print two (2) copies of the waiver releasing Simmons Farm from all liability. One copy of the waiver MUST be carried while on Simmons property and one copy of the waiver MUST be placed on the dashboard of your vehicle.
2. Simmons Farm must be notified in advance of accessing our farm property by e-mail. Inform the farm of who will be on the property, the date and time of your arrival, and where you will be hunting.
3. Vehicles are required to park in designated areas--download and check map on the hunting tab of our website. No vehicles are permitted to drive through Simmons Farm property.
4. Hunters must have a current Pennsylvania Hunting License and are required to comply with all Pennsylvania Game Commission rules, regulations and hunting hours.
5. Simmons Farm reserves the right to deny access to our property at any time for the safety of our customers, employees, and sportspeople.
6. Hunting may be suspended at certain times. Please check our website for closures.
7. Use EXTRA CAUTION.

To obtain a Simmons Farm Hunting Waiver Packet:

- Download from this web site by clicking on the application icon.
- Read, Sign and e-mail back to Market@simmonsfarm.com. You are now ready to hunt on Simmons Farm Property.

The Simmons Family thanks you for your interest in helping The Simmons Farm and The Pennsylvania Game Commission manage the wildlife on our farm.

Thank You and Have Fun,

The Simmons Family
